Part 1

Unknown energy comes our way

Hello everyone!

I would like to share a few thoughts and conclusions with all of you who want to listen about my research on the 2012 scenario.

I will start with the ancient Maya knowledge...

Deep in the center of the Milky Way there is a Black Hole, which the scientific community called Sgr.A. (Sagittarius A).

The Mayans called it The Tree of Life and it was passed to them that in the centre of the galaxy, a point known as “Hunab Ku” exists and it’s a location from where consciousness comes.

There is a high possibility that the black hole in the center of the Milky Way represents a portal into a higher Universe, which possesses completely different reality.

The “Ones” that left the knowledge to Mayas, insisted that “Hunab Ku” is the Consciousness that organizes all matter and antimatter. The “ancients” insisted that we understand the message that the Hunab Ku runs everything that happens in the Galaxies and acts through periodical extreme powerful explosions of Consciousness Energy from the galactic center.

On the other hand, the “Ones” that left the knowledge to the Mayas clearly pointed out that the Time actually flows in a circular manner or in cycles.

The “thing” which is very important for all of us currently present on earth in this time, which, according to the Gregorian Calendar is January 2009, is that the “ancients” had delivered a message through the Mayan Long Count Calendar that on a date in the future, which matches the Gregorian Calendar on 21 Dec 2012, something extraordinary will happen – the life on earth will face Evolution!

The latest input generated from our friends from the stars, via crop formations, suggest that indeed, there will be a cosmic alignment between the earth, sun, and the center of the Milky Way Galaxy – Hunab Ku.

According to the mainstream science, we have already passed the closest point of crossing with the galactic equator in 1998, and that is why the scientific community has disagreements about this wide spread idea of the cosmic alignment on 21 Dec 2012.

Some of the scientists have stepped forward with the statement that precession is moving the winter solstice sun further from the galactic equator. That means that it will not be in exact alignment on Dec 21, 2012 and that in this moment, we are actually at a point which is 78 light-years away from the galactic equator, and we are moving further away from it.

This logic is good, but there is a missing input. And that missing input that is coming to us, via crop design messages, is suggesting that there will be indeed a precise cosmic alignment, as the result of so far unseen changes in the Matrix of our solar system.

If the Matrix of our solar system would remain the same and our solar system would stay as it is and by default, this scientific conclusion would be totally correct.

But... the CROP CIRCLE MAKERS are showing us that... it won't.

Just for the record: The sun entered the galactic equator during the Winter Solstice of 1980 and everything would stay by default and have completely cleared the galactic equator on the Winter Solstice of 2016. The years between 1980 and 2016 is called the Galactic Alignment zone or era-2012.

If we remove our shields and belief systems, we can clearly see that something extraordinary is happening all around us. The Matrix is changing because we are influenced by new energies from the Galactic Center. The proof is everywhere.

There is a high possibility that in the moment of the alignment in 1998, there was some kind of activation in the center of the Sgr A***.

As far as we can stretch out our current understanding of the dynamics of the Universe, it was some kind of Aetheric portal opening from where an unknown form of energy entered into the Milky Way and is now traveling this way.

Also for the record, the center of the Milky Way is 26.000 Light Years away from us, and in normal conditions it would take the same time period to reach us if the energy is moving with the speed of Light. That means that this Aetheric plasma energy is moving with speed that is way beyond our current perception and understanding. As “ETs” clearly delivered in few of their crop designs, we will “visually” see this phenomenon from earth on 13 Dec 2012.

Now let's get back to that 1998 alignment. The second alignment and very important for us is not going to happen by continuing on the same course away from the galactic center, but it's going to be about the increasing of the mass of our star, increasing sun's energy output and also extreme gravitational pull and then as a secondary result a change in the earth's nominal orbit.

Why all this didn't happen in 1998 and why this second alignment, I have no clear answer. Why this is the case, I can not say... but I can conclude that in most cases what we consider logical and what perfectly fits our understanding of the cosmic reality, in most cases turns out that has nothing to do with the true Aether's logic and how the Creator manages this Universe.

Solar-System on Dec. 21, 2012

Also I have to mention that the downloaded data in the crop field depicts a passing of a huge celestial object larger than Jupiter close to Pluto's orbit.

You do not have to be knowledgeable in astrophysics to determine that the planets will experience extreme gravitational pull from two sides – The sun and the massive passing celestial object at the edge of our solar system. There is a clear depiction that as result of this, our solar system will experience a split. In other words, our solar system will never be the same.

Please take into consideration that this info was never designed for spreading fear but to inform humanity about the real situation and how we, as human beings, can play our own part in this complicated cosmic scenario.

At the bottom line, we, as many other races in the Universe, are multidimensional beings, and our essence continues to exist after our permanent departure from our biological bodies and this plane of existence.

The ETs also delivered that on this date a bright comet will also be visible on our sky and there will be a New Moon.

On 21 Dec 2012, 11:11 AM Universal Time (that people refer to Zero Time Point), our sun and our planet will be at perfect alignment with the Galactic center.

It is interesting that on the same day, when the ecliptic of our solar system will intersect with the Galactic plane, the sun should be at its solar maximum!

According to the scale of mass expansion... we are talking about extreme solar maximum!

Let's get back to the Maya records.

The "Ancients" considered the date 21 Dec 2012 as a date of rebirth... beginning of a New Era which is the result of crossing the solar meridian through the galactic equator and the alignment of earth with the center of the Milky Way. In any case, let's start to analyze from an astronomical aspect what will possibly happen around the date that Mayas determined as a last in their Long Count Calendar. Despite the fact that there are 1443 days left, our world is starting to experience unseen, extreme and rapid climate changes.

The number and intensity of those "natural" catastrophes increases rapidly. The scientists recorded extremely unusual behaviour of our sun which directly influences all the planets in our solar system. Not to mention that there is evidence that in the atmospheres of the planets in our solar system, there is a drastic change and that there is evidence that planets for some unknown reason are experiencing increases in mass.

Are the strange energetic emanations from the center of the Milky Way detected by Dr. Scott Hyman the real cause of so visible changes that are occurring in our solar system?

–The Mayas would clearly say: Yes!

They will also say that colossal emissions of “an unknown form of energy” will arrive from the center of the Milky Way, which will change the fundamentals of the physics of our world, new material and immaterial conditions for life, which will last till the end of the next cycle.

On 21.12.2012 according to the ancient Maya records, humanity will enter into a New Era of Higher Consciousness. It is interesting that at this moment all that are present on the planet are experiencing more or less a shift in Consciousness.

In 2012 we all have a chance to transcend the old ways and to learn to live in peace and harmony with all the rest that exist in the Cosmos.

That process of the rebirth to half-etheric beings, according to the input that was generated from the pictograms in the crops all over the world, but mostly in the UK, will start somewhere between 13-21 Dec 2012 (The end of the Fifth sun) and it will be complete on 28 March 2013 which in fact is the end of the sun-Venus calendar and in the same time the start of Sixth sun.

During this process from the direction of the center of the Milky Way cosmic rays will arrive which will bring the final DNA reprogramming of life that exists in this solar system. That is why it is extremely important that we all pay attention to the messages that are coming in the crops.

Part 2

Earth bombarded with gamma rays

After so much input in this issue, we can conclude that during this event, our planet will be bombarded with the most deadly gamma rays ever found emitting from the Milky Way galaxy, 3.5 trillion electron volts.

The Crop Circle Makers are showing us that we will be exposed to this gamma ray stream at least for few months when the reprogramming of our DNA will take place.

We all know that the other planets in our solar system are also being affected by Global Warming too.

Also we already know that most input we are getting from the leading mainstream media is false and the human factor is not the cause of those extreme changes.

It becomes obvious that our Star has much to do with the Global Warming, but this is just a local influence. The evidence is pointing that our sun itself is influenced by the galactic equator where trillions of electron volts are spewing out of the dark rift.

Physicists had found an evidence for highest energy photons ever detected from Milky Way's Equator. That much direct radiation is believed to be extremely lethal and has strength to destroy all organic matter.

For the record, the Black hole located in the center of Milky Way Galaxy contains an estimated mass of over 1 trillion stars, and it is believed to be over 2 trillion miles in diameter. Many leading astro and quantum physicists also believe that super massive black holes are spinning at unbelievably high rates due to their overwhelming mass.

But what does this have to do with humanity's future?

– In the Milky Way, which is an active galaxy, our solar system cyclically moves above and below the galactic plane. As stars and planetary systems, including our own, approach this galactic plane, the gravitational influence increases, which disturbs the stability of each planet including earth.

–The passage to the densest portion of the gravitational plane is the direct cause of the devastating cycles and pole shifts that we see recorded throughout history. This cyclic nature of our solar system as we move through the Milky Way is precisely on what many ancient civilizations based their calendar systems.

-The Mayans themselves described what they referred to as “The Dark Rift” or the “The Galactic Plane”. As we are exposed to the energies of the galactic gravitational plane, we will continue to experience severe whether, geological effects such as earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes and volcanic activity, with increased frequency and intensity.

As we penetrate the densest portion of the galactic plane and experience the full gravitational effects, we may witness unprecedented solar flares, unexpected meteor showers and unfortunately geographical Pole Shift.

Part 3 SUPER WAVE

Dr.Paul LaViolette

Perhaps if we want to understand things that are coming, it should be useful to look at the work of the scientific genius Dr.Paul LaViolette.

He is currently president of the Starburst Foundation interdisciplinary scientific research institute. The primary goal of LaViolette's expeditions was search for evidence of increased levels of cosmic dust in the Ice Core Records which matches the last Ice Age.

One thing which is relevant for the 2012-2013 Nexus Event is that the Starburst Foundation discovered that at least two superwaves with the strength to generate a New Ice Age are travelling our way from their place of origin distance around 26,000 Light Years – Galactic Center of the Milky Way.

It's likely that our solar system is already experiencing the invasive energy from the Galactic equator. Recent observations have shown a dramatic increase in gamma ray energy in the Galaxy's equator which will be in maximum during the alignment with our solar system on 21 December 2012.

It is my belief that at the end of the 2012 we can expect a hit of at least five superwaves with the power to cause a New Ice Age and they are travelling this way with speed higher than the speed of Light, from their starting point, distant 26,000 Light Years away – The Black Hole in the center of the Milky Way Galaxy.

Part 4

HOW DID DR.PAUL LaVIOLETTE CONNECT THE DOTS ?

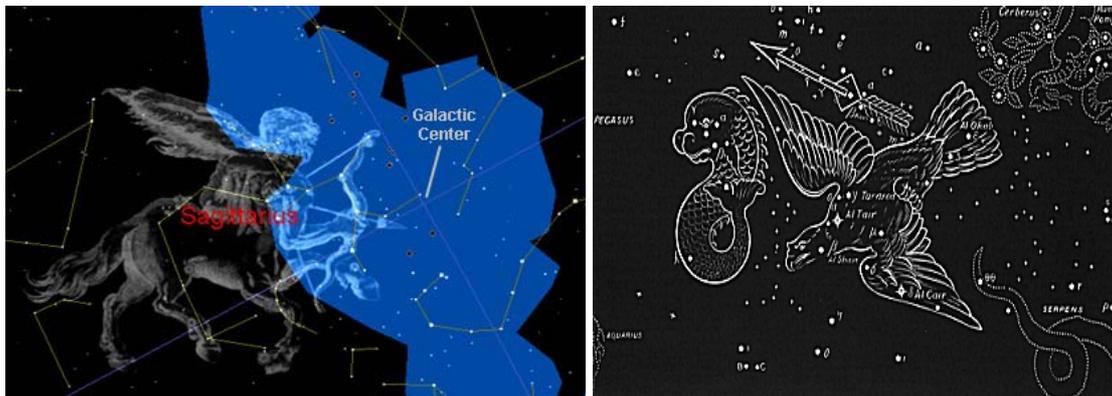

When he was asked how he did it, he said that he simply knew where to look. He responded that in the same time he was conducting his scientific research, he also conducted a thermal and detail study and analysis of ancient myths, traditions, manuscripts, maps, drawings and coded messages on the walls of most ancient temples.

While Dr.Paul LaViolette was searching for some extremely important lead in the ancient records and myths, he also conducted complicated research and measurements in the field of Astronomy, worked on new theories in astrophysics, and spent much time on studying Pulsars, Evolution Cosmology etc.

He noticed that in the Western Zodiac, Sagittarius is pointing towards Scorpion, and it become clear to him that this is extremely important because it contains a hidden message that is thousands of years old.

He discovered that the arrow of the Sagittarius is placed there to point directly at the center of the Milky Way.

In the Western Zodiac there are two arrows. One of the arrow is located in the northern hemisphere – Sagitta and points or shoots out of the galactic center while the other one is located in the southern hemisphere –Sagittarius and it points or is shooting directly into the galactic center!

Way... this is heavy information, if you are aware what is coming in 2012.

When you analyze that, you can clearly see that the arrow of the Sagittarius is indicating an explosion day and the arrow of the Sagitta is the result of that explosion.

In other words, the cosmic rays.

Can core samples give us solid evidence if a similar explosion happened before?

– Yes.

In the Beryllium10 graphs that indicate cosmic rays' density, the strikes in the earth's atmosphere we can clearly see peaks.

There is one very large peak around 37000 years ago which corresponds according to what we know, to the extinction of the Neanderthals.

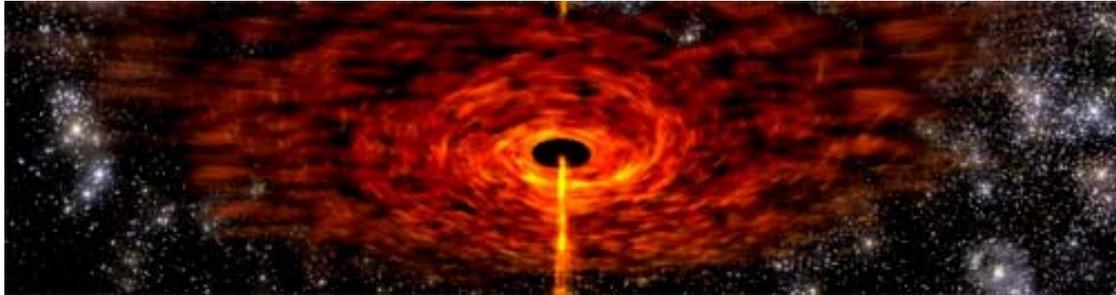

If you look in the ancient myths of Hopi Indians, Incas, Mayas, Vedas and others, you can see that they are talking about Ages and races which once existed and became extinct at certain times.

So these cosmic ray peaks seem to be climate triggers for an Ice Age or for an extremely warmer Age.

Basically the large explosions appear every 13000 - 26000 years.

From the recording of similar events happening in other galaxies, we can calculate that those cosmic rays are travelling around the speed of light. But this is questionable; the speed could be faster in some major explosions.

This is not impossible when we know that in the case of the Milky Way center there is a Super Massive Black Hole which, with its extreme gravitational power, is pulling a huge amount of cosmic dust and gas towards the central point, and when the process reaches its culmination, boom... there is an explosion so powerful that it releases visible beam “Jets” that consist mostly of ionized gas and plasma.

Cosmic rays that were travelling at such high speed can to a certain point explain the phenomena of frozen mammoths and other animals with food in their mouths just as something unpredicted and sudden happened on a global scale without any warning and caused an Ice Age.

However, if we summarise this, the message in the Western Zodiac indicates that on this trajectory date, a galactic center energy creation event becomes visible!

In our case it will be right after the appearance of the New Moon on December 13th 2012, which also can mean the start of extremely huge catastrophic effects for our planet.

Strangely, the ancient Hopi Prophecy says:

There will come a time, when a blue star will appear in the sky... Its light will shatter the darkness of the night... This blue light will bring a wind... A wind like that has not been seen on earth for a long time... The blue star will bring a fire... This fire will be so bright and hot that it will transform the matter of the Universe... The blue light from this star is a signal that the fourth world is ending... The blue star will cause the oceans to rise and top up towards the land, flooding the world... Almost all living things will physically perish in this great catastrophe.

Since we can't see the galactic core by reason of its intervening dust clouds, most of the blue light from the galactic core explosion will come from the cosmic ray electrons emitted from the core.

During their 26 000 light years' journey to us, those powerful cosmic ray electrons would continuously generate and beam forward a bluish light.

Soon after they become visible for us on 13 Dec 2012, the superwave cosmic rays will start to penetrate the protective magnetic field of our solar system.

It will impact our sun and all the planets in our solar system, causing severe bad weather and natural disasters, a shift of the magnetic and geological Poles which we all know where all that leads.

At the moment of flip-over (Pole Shift) the gravity which holds the water in oceans will no longer be able to sustain equilibrium (balance) and that water no longer controlled by stable gravitation will escape on one side which means nothing else but a New Global Flood!

That will trigger Tsunamis few miles high, a tearing apart of the continents, ashes from the volcanoes and wind like no other seen so far.

This will happen when the precession of the earth ends on 21.12.2012, (it takes 25,765 years to complete): the rotation will come to a stop, and when that happens on the surface, the ones that survive till then will experience what ancient records describe as the “heaven and the earth switch places and the next day the sun rises on a different side”.

The ancients left clear warning about this event, thousands of years ago. We have to stop be ignorant!

But what about the sun?

The friendly “ETs” or the “Visitors,” if we can call them that, despite the fact that there is a high probability that they have been here longer than our race, clearly had drawn on 22 July 2008 in a huge crop field in Avebury Manor / UK that our sun will go through expansion in the mass and that will swallow Mercury and Venus.

Part 5

Basic Input About Solar Storms

It is well known that the surface of the sun pumps up huge amounts of heat and light into space.

From time to time, those huge explosions become solar storms and travel to our planet. When those solar storms hit upon the earth, in most cases they do not have fatal effects on the living forms, but the dense energetic grid, which makes our lives and our existence simpler, can easily serve as conductor or channel for the destructive solar storm energy, and it can completely neutralize our electrical systems.

We have to take into consideration that even before 21 Dec 2012, our sun is already exposed to the influence of the strongest gravitational force that exists in the center of the Milky Way.

Also there is some data that Shadow Government is using some kind of plasma weapons to bombard the sun, using HAARP and Tesla Technology; I personally think that the Elite is really doing this, but the main cause is the gravitational influence from the Sgr A*.

NASA and Shadow Government are hiding information from us. They have technologies centuries ahead, tested in secret underground military bases around the world.

But we have go on with what we have and try to understand this before it's too late.

As a matter of fact, even without 2012 in the next 10 years there will be NWO on this planet, and it will not be a nice place to be anymore...

Anyway, the thing will go worse and worse, the sun will burn hotter and hotter like never before because the gravity from the central belt of the galaxy its already doing its “magic.”

This gravitational pull and exchange of energy is also coming through some minor cosmic rays that are already hitting our solar system. But make no mistake, those minor cosmic rays are not comparable with the proportion of the Nexus- A Storm of Superwaves that is coming.

The things that I'm presenting are just like that, parts of natural cycles, and it is better that they are understood in that way.

Without fear, without panic, and without prejudices. Nature is not like this or like that... It simply is.

It must become clear to everyone that the Universe is bigger than us and our lives.

We are only transit phenomena, although a part of the whole cosmic reality. This is neither good nor bad.

It simply is.

Shadow Governments are expendable. But we are not expendable, and we are going to prove it!

Let's go further:

The cosmic dust and gas that will arrive at the end of 2012 into our solar system with the coming of the Nexus – Superwave Event will cause our sun to start to behave like a T Tauri Star.

T Tauri stars are stars surrounded by a thin cloud of interstellar gas and dust which induces that they become highly bright because of continual coronal activity.

In the end they become strong emitters of cosmic rays!

In case of our sun where the solar flares (used to) occur 1-10 times in a one-year period, at the moment of the Superwave Event they will start to appear frequently on the sun's surface...

MESSAGES FROM ABOVE

But let's see what the friendly "ETs" have to say about the 2012 event through their complex crop designs around the world. The crop pictograms clearly show an astronomical event that will happen in late 2012 or early 2013, close to the end of the current sun-Venus calendar or in between—the arrival of some kind of cosmic rays from the Galactic Center.

The people of earth for the first time in a long time period will have an opportunity to visually see in the sky the coming of cosmic rays from the galactic center exactly on Dec 13th 2012 when New Moon and some Comet will be aligned with the galactic center.

It becomes obvious that those rays from the galactic center will arrive periodically according to their size and strength. The last and the biggest cosmic ray of all from the "Nexus –Superwave Event (Unknown Form of energy that travels our way)," will finish the reprogramming of the DNA of the organic life forms in this system. It will arrive exactly on 28 March 2008, when officially is the "End of the sun-Venus Calendar," and the beginning of the "Sixth sun!"

What does this mean?

At the heart of the transformation of humans on earth is an evolutionary movement brought into play by galactic forces and celestial movement. This involves the bathing of our Planet and the biology upon it in gamma ray energies projected from the Galactic Center. This bio-cosmic event has been anticipated throughout humanity's presence on this Planet and appears in the cultural records of many peoples as the Perennial Wisdom. The perennial wisdom describes the triumph of compassion and intelligence over violence and ignorance.

This is to be achieved by the actual transmutation of human genetic material, our DNA, when it is bathed in galactic light emanating from our own sun, acting as transducer of the Galactic Center itself, passing directly through the earth and along the axis to the Pleiades Star System.

The emergence point of this event in time is recorded as December 2012. Ultimately, it is love in its personal application as compassion and its universal manifestation as creation, which both guide and characterize the advent of the noosphere. The ordained celestial movements are transforming homo sapiens DNA to the DNA of Homo noosphericus.

That is the desire of love and the intelligently designed outcome of biology. Our collective success in Universe is assured by love's intention for the success of humans - its intended embodiment of divine intention in time- in all dimensions and universes!

Let's put some light to the pictogram that appeared in Avebury Manor on July 15, 2008. The pictogram is a clear depiction of our planetary system on 23-24 Dec 2012, two or three days after the End of the Long Count Calendar – December 21, 2012.

PRELIMINARY DIAGRAM

It is a clear selection of two groups:

One group consists of thin circles and depicts the orbits of Mercury, Venus, earth, Mars and Pluto.

The other one with bold circles consists of Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune. “They” insist that we pay attention on two things:

First: the first anomaly is in Pluto’s orbit, which clearly depicts that this heavenly body will be influenced by outer gravitation from some passing body, planet or comet.

Second: the second anomaly is splitting in two groups. Can this be understood as separation of our solar system in two groups, as result of extreme sun’s activity in combination with some extreme powerful gravitation of passing body or comet?

The message is perfectly clear – it’s our solar system on 23-24 Dec 2012.

All this would not be so significant if 7 days after, on 22 July an update didn’t appear.

And what was on it says absolutely everything we need to know!

It indicates huge geological changes and movements in our solar system as a result of sun's expansion in mass and strong gravitational pull from outside.

Have a look at the update and see for yourself:

The mass of the sun is much bigger, and the planet Mercury and Venus are completely burned.

From the left side we see a huge object (number 10) approaching that is probably Planet X which has strong gravitation which is influencing Pluto's orbit and then a new moon and bright comet from the right side.

Expansion of the sun is obvious, together with the swallowing of its two closest planets.

Mercury and Venus are completely burned by the sun.

If this pictogram is correct, our solar system will never be the same!

The final part
2012 Nexus Event –
Unknown Form of Energy comes our way!

Astralwalker's friendly suggestions and useful Leads:

There are high indications that climate change will increase, to the extreme, as we approach the end of the Fifth sun - 21 Dec 2012.

This will be a natural result from the exposure of the maximum gravitational pull which comes from the Sgr A* and from the passing celestial body that is close to our solar system and which, as presented in the crop data, will intercept in 2012 an area close to Pluto. If the galactic core which is in the center of the flattened disk has gravitational power to hold stars and planetary systems distant to 50,000 light years in each direction, you better believe that it has power to do much more.

The stellar disk of the Milky Way is around 100,000 light-years in diameter and to hold all this together and to maintain the spin, it takes extreme power. As we stated before, this engine is the Super Massive Black Hole, and Hubble Telescope discovered that this is the case also with most of galaxies. In fact they are starting to find them everywhere but ... it's a huge space, everything is possible.

Anyway, it will soon become obvious that the climate is out of control, and more and more “surprises” will start to appear. Tornados, Cyclones, earthquakes, volcanoes, shifting in the planetary magnetic balance, tsunamis and you name it whatever else, that will eventually lead to a shift in the magnetic polarity of the earth's energetic grid and finally to a shift in geological poles. It starts to become clear to more and more people what Pole Shift in the geological aspect means.

It means new Global Flood, tearing apart of tectonic plates, sinking parts of continents, rising of new land, deadly CMEs etc.

Not to mention the sun, which by “coincidence”, will go through Pole Shift again, which so far, as far as we know, was doing it every 11 years. The last Pole Shift was in 2001, the next one is in 2012.

This “Elite” knows what’s coming, but it will not inform people. The analysis from the world’s political and military strategies has shown that vast chambers are built as well as huge prison camps.

That means that there is a strategy that major parts of the human population will be wiped out by the events that are coming. Also the actions of some ongoing programs in the background are indicating that a selective part of 1/6 of the human population will be taken to underground world.

Everyone that will be taken down, wether if it is by force or by free will, will have to go through Microchipping.

By the Microchip injection, you have ended your choice. Once the Microchip is in the body, they can wirelessly control the subject, his health status, behavior and eliminate him if they consider it necessary.

Despite having been ridiculed by the whole world, this 1977 Vrillon message is authentic. You can not expect the same Shadow Government to announce the authenticity of the messages when it has been conducting extremely clever cover up projects for at least 60 years.

The message is authentic, and it's your choice to believe if it is genuine or not!

Full 1977 message transcript:

This is the voice of Vrillon, a representative of the Ashtar Galactic Command, speaking to you.

For many years you have seen us as lights in the skies. We speak to you now in peace and wisdom as we have done to your brothers and sisters all over this, your planet earth. We come to warn you of the destiny of your race and your world so that you may communicate to your fellow beings the course you must take to avoid the disaster which threatens your world, and the beings on our worlds around you.

This is in order that you may share in the great awakening, as the planet passes into the New Age of Aquarius. The New Age can be a time of great peace and evolution for your race, but only if your rulers are made aware of the evil forces that can overshadow their judgments. Be still now and listen, for your chance may not come again.

All your weapons of evil must be removed.

The time for conflict is now past and the race of which you are a part may proceed to the higher stages of its evolution if you show yourselves worthy to do this. You have but a short time to learn to live together in peace and goodwill. So wake up. Don't be afraid to do something because if we do not do, we will lose not just our bodies, but our planet and our souls.

Small groups all over the planet are learning this, and exist to pass on the light of the dawning New Age to you all. You are free to accept or reject their teachings, but only those who learn to live in peace will pass to the higher realms of spiritual evolution.

Hear now the voice of Vrillon, a representative of the Ashtar Galactic Command, speaking to you.

Be aware also that there are many false prophets and guides operating in your world.

They will suck your energy from you - the energy you call money and will put it to evil ends and give you worthless dross in return.

Your inner divine self will protect you from this.

You must learn to be sensitive to the voice within that can tell you what is truth, and what is confusion, chaos and untruth.

Learn to listen to the voice of truth which is within you and you will lead yourselves onto the path of evolution.

This is our message to our dear friends.

We have watched you growing for many years as you too have watched our lights in your skies.

You know now that we are here, and that there are more beings on and around your earth than your scientists admit.

We are deeply concerned about you and your path towards the light and will do all we can to help you.

Have no fear, seek only to know yourselves, and live in harmony with the ways of your planet earth.

We of the Ashtar Galactic Command thank you for your attention. We are now leaving the plane of your existence.

May you be blessed by the Supreme Love and Truth of the Cosmos...

We are also in the middle of a spiritual conflict, the Dark Side is deceptive and powerful but it's the wrong option. First thing is to reject the system. Video files like Zeitgeist 1 and 2 and similar provide a lot of clues on what is going on.

As I was saying earlier, this ruling Elite or Shadow Government is afraid of what is coming this way. With the last wave that arrives on 28 March 2013 they will all pay for what they did because against the Will of the Creator no one can go.

SO, WHAT IS SMART TO DO?

Many things. But mostly, to stay alive till the arrival of the first few beams. They will become visible on Dec 13 2012, and the first one will arrive after 8 days exactly on 11:11 when the alignment will take place.

– After the arrival of the first few beams from the Galactic center, we are safe.

They will be strong enough to clean the astral plane, and afterwards it doesn't matter even if we lose our physical bodies. We are safe. The Nexus will clean all the dirt in it.

Advice 1:

If things go as they will, don't go to the underground facilities that will be offered to you. It's better to stay outside than to hide underground. The Way Down leads to New World Order – distorted idea that stretches all the way back to ancient Atlantis.

Advice 2:

Around the World a certain percentage of people are more or less informed about the 2012 scenario, and they constantly check the new info about 2012. They connect with each other through what is called “survival groups”.

This and similar Forums on the Web are doing great Job in informing the people. It's the only thing we can use to communicate. But they will introduce some major internet restrictions soon, so I do not know how long we can surf on this huge library of knowledge and information.

Advice 3:

Follow the input that comes from the crop circles. Through them all the safe locations will be shown. It is up to every one of you to choose if you will believe in those messages or not. Whatever you choose, it's your choice and the benefit or consequences is yours. The Divine Creation will make sure that the right info reaches every one who is worth it, but the choice is yours.

Advice 4:

In the past they also were facing similar events. They build huge arcs to be safe themselves: Here is a link where they are:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6cvlzXz17A4>

Perhaps those locations will be of some use to us, but the one in Australia does not count anymore, because (according to the channeled data) in the moment of the heaviest gravitational pull from the sun, most of the continent will break and sink under the water.

According to Channelling info:

As far as Europe is concerned, whatever scenario takes place, it will be under deep water. There will be tearing apart of the tectonic plates in the region of Ex Yugoslavia, Adriatic Sea, Italy, and down to the middle of Africa.

In fact two tectonic plates will break on the same line.

The Euro-Asian and the African Plate.

There was some channeling that New York City will have nuclear blast in 2012. Whether this will really happen remains to be seen. We really don't rely on channeling, but there are people that are really gifted.

We are hopping that the following channeling is wrong...but.

The Queensland's coastal cities will be flooded, and only the central regions of Queensland along the inner area of the mountain range together with a part of New South Wales will remain.

The breaking line of the continent is between Adelaide (Port Augusta) and Normanton on the other side of the continent, Central and Western part of the continent will sink down, the coastline of Eastern part will be flooded, the mountain range will redirect the coming water towards Indonesia, just enough a part of land to stay in one piece and intact.

There are other places that are safe, but most of those will probably not sustain suitable climate, because after this Global Warming process we are facing Ice Age in most parts of our planet.

That is why they build the Underground World. It's already 90% operational, but if the Norwegian politician is correct it has to be finished by the start of 2011.

So, for all of you who will read this—wake up!

And do what your heart is telling that is moral and right to do.

Advice 5:

Do not ever allow yourself or your child to be injected with vaccine. Not ever and not at any cause. I will not comment further on this.

Advice 6:

Under “certain circumstances,” I left the physical body before the beams had arrived? What now?

In this moment the astral space of this planet is not safe “if I may say that” and not many beings can leave it safely. There is a high chance (we have to be open to all possibilities) that most of the population with the coming events, after leaving the physical bodies, will come directly to the astral dimension.

The adjustment of the consciousness has to be done as soon as possible. I would not recommend entering dark tunnels with the light at the end. This could be easily one more manipulation from the multidimensional entities that are not friendly to us. If you are not sure, do not get “friendly” with any entity before the beams from the galactic center arrives.

There is a possibility that, on the astral plane, huge ships will be parked, with a plan to use their advanced technology to trap as many consciousnesses they can, the same consciousnesses that were previously in human bodies, and then to cut their awareness, to put them in dream-like awareness so they will not know what is going on, (believe that they have technology and the skills to do that) and then to put them inside the energetic containers, transport them to other systems and finally put them in other bodies so the manipulation and the explanation of the generated energy field called aura, which is a result of the fusing of our consciousness with the energies in the surrounding space, can continue.

That is why it is advisable to have physical dislocation to zones that have multidimensional portals above the ground, places with strong and dense positive energy. Put in simple words – places on the physical plane where the astral dimension is safe and secure.

I know that all this is probably hard to swallow for most of you, but it's happening. For few of you, still open minded, the Shield that is keeping our consciousness attached to this planet is weakening and with the right determination can be penetrated and consciousness can escape.

Leaving in any direction means infinite choices, but I recommend redirecting your astral body directly towards the center of the Milky Way, high speed astral flight in that direction and intercepting the beams that are coming this way.

It is the only place that I'm sure it's safe!

Please remember all this before they remove this from the net!

If your astral skills are not so good, try to stay awake in the astral plane and avoid any tunnels, vortexes etc. in the astral plane. Resist any outer pressure from anyone over there to enter into craft, portal etc. and wait for the Nexus to arrive.

If you stay while in the astral dimension, you will soon get used to this new density, and if that happens, don't wait, but leave this planet and go directly to the directions of the center of the galaxy.

The moment one of the beams of the Nexus touches you, you are safe!

– Should we be afraid?

No. The Cosmic reality is bigger than we are. We are on the start of the change which is natural culmination of things. We should fear ignorance and prejudice. Only the true knowledge will set you free, and it will be there for you when you need it the most.

Are we on a door of something extraordinary?

I believe Yes. All our troubles will soon be over, and soon we will exist fully conscious on a higher density and become aware of our true nature and the true nature of all things in the Universe.

What else is smart that we do?

Look back to your lives and see where obstructions are and where you find unpleasant mark. Fix the mistakes that you have made, be brave to apologize where you need to and to ask for forgiveness where you need to.

From every enemy in your life try to make a friend, or if that isn't possible, make effort to gain a neutral relationship with that person, which will automatically lead to disintegration of long-time generated mental energy.

Remember, we are all connected. We just don't see it because of this five sense limitation we have. Should we be joyful that we are present here in this moment in time, just before the end of a long cycle?

Yes. If you look with the eyes of your common sense and intellect, you see Pole Shifts, unavoidable catastrophes as a result of natural cosmic conditions and laws. But if you look with the eyes of your heart, the picture looks different and deep inside yourself you know that in the end, everything will be Ok.

Something about the future?

Stay awake. Follow the path of Love and the universe will open its paths that will take you to safety.

Just open your heart and listen where it points.

"Beware the bearers of FALSE gifts & their BROKEN PROMISES.

Much PAIN but still time.

There is GOOD out there.

We OPpose DECEPTION.

Conduit CLOSING [bell sound]"

What can we do ?

Much PAIN but still time.

It was not yesterday, it is not in the future... it is now that we must step forward, unite and do what we as humans can do, to protect Gaia from the evil that is upon her

What do we have to do before it's too late?

I believe the first steps for all humanity is to awake, to stop all conflicts, to unite, to start rejecting the ruling system, to become aware that our world is changing and so are we, to come together and to discuss what we have as a solid evidence of coming events, to become aware that the ETs are warning us about the expansion of our star and that cosmic beams are coming towards us from the galactic center in 2012. We have to do this, people...we have to get together and solve this out before its too late...

First : Ancient knowledge and sacred sites

The ruling Elite knows all about this ancient knowledge and has put obelisks on the exact locations around the world to gain their evil acupuncture results. Those places are very important for human beings who are on the side of Light because they can be utilized to stop the evil of our planet and to unleash the healing process of our planet.

The statistics is showing that our planet is dying, the leading media are suppressing the catastrophic percentage of dying species, and every month more and more are gone, and more and more death ocean zones are appearing. The climate is almost out of control, so we have to take steps, now.

The only way out of this is through unity and team work, so I believe it is smart that people create a map of all sacred places that are part of the true ancient planetary grid. We don't even have to go very deep into this mathematical knowledge; it's enough if we look for the location of every ancient sacred site on every continent and start marking the spots, draw lines toward others and find new ones that were in the shadow before. Once the new planetary acupuncture map is finished we can proceed further.

Second: Geomusic

Another piece of the puzzle, I believe, can be extracted from this info: James Paul Furia, geomusic expert. I will explain about him shortly, but let's continue further.

Third: Synchronized Global meditation on sacred sites

The next step, which I believe is smart to do, is a gathering of the people who feel and resonate with this idea and purpose, in these ancient sites, which are part of the planetary energy grid. It is better that most of the people have already experience in the meditative arts and altered states of consciousness. There are many who can lead the group meditation, and they should organize the group and explain the basics and the purpose that we try to accomplish. When thousands of people come to one of the locations marked using the Code, they will all have to sit and have to enter a state of inertia and stillness. In fact this will work only if millions gather on the same day and at the same time – adjusted to time zones, and all tune to this psionic field of our planet with the focus to make a change.

And it will work!

On the sites we also have to assemble some audio equipment. Then the audio engineers can press the play button so the music according to the latitude and longitude of their exact geographical location can be heard by the meditators loud and clear. See the work of James Paul Furia – fusing geomusic with geomathematics of the ancient sacred sites.

The exact audio frequency will generate the vibration that all meditators will soon tune to, and a powerful field of clean mental energy will manifest as result of that. At this point this force can be focused.

In other words, with previous experience in meditation and helped by the precise audio frequency that will activate the pineal gland, the group will be able to tune into the same wavelength, to materialize a clean psychic force in the surrounding space. We have to have the best of science and the best of esoteric knowledge to achieve this.

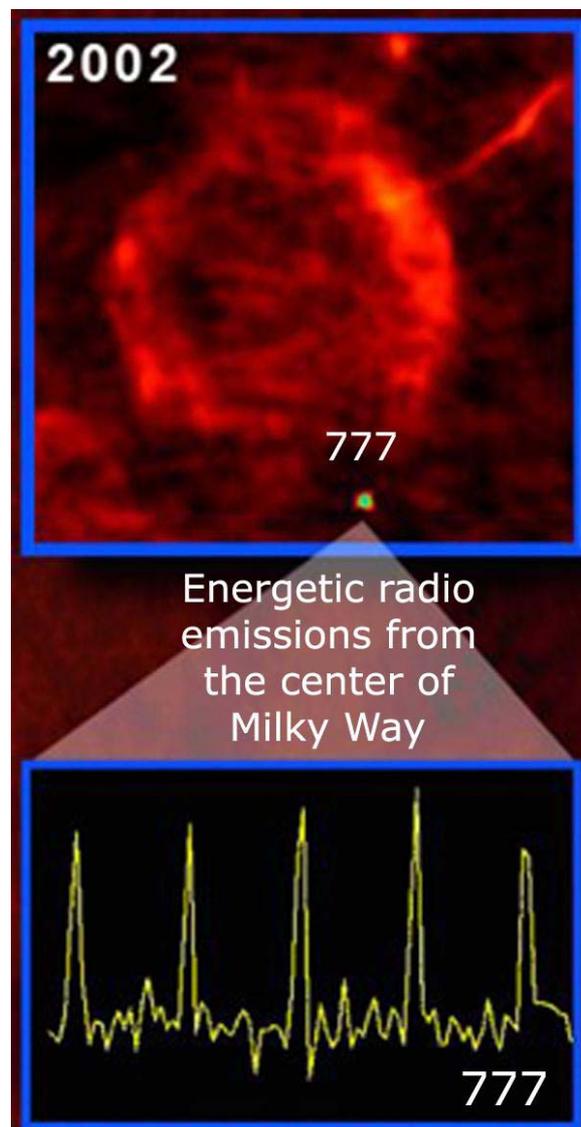

The balance between the intellectual power and spiritual power: The key lies in the middle of those two. Once you can see it in your consciousness, you start to understand its dynamics and you tune into this new frequency. Nature recognizes this and it'll start to help you, and you become a channel of Divine Plan.

This has to be done on every spot of the planet. The audio engineers will create the correct musical file that corresponds for every place in the continent. I think, at least 7 places in one continent are minimum for us to accomplish this.

The best ratio is 7000 people on 7 biggest ancient sacred sites on every one of the 7 continents.

In other words: 777

The balance to ... you know which mathematical number and which vibration.

But, that's not important. We have to gather as many people as we can. The more come, the better. This 777 ratio will surface in the end because simply, in this holographic universe, everything is defined by numbers and codes.

We just have to remember that everything is energy.

We are energy, and we are flowing in the ocean of energy.

If done the way it should be, we can change the state of the four elements and a lot more. Only if we understand this on time. Every thought contains energy. Imagine if we can do this on planetary scale.

We do not need guns to defeat evil, we just have to stop accepting evil as part of our reality. Now let's get back to Mr. James Paul Furia - geomusic expert!

Geomusic is a formula connecting geometry with sacred sites, earth measures and music knowledge.

Inspired by the research of Carl Munck, researcher and composer James Paul Furia demonstrates a relationship between the notes of the musical scale, the locations and shapes of hundreds of ancient monuments, and the exact distance and location of stars, planets and constellations.

Furia combines the art of music, mathematics, astronomy, the study of the pyramids and ancient cultures revealing stunning correlations between color, frequency, physics and consciousness.

His program reveals a glimpse of the interconnectedness of everything in our reality reflected in our awareness, our ideas, how we express ourselves and shape the world around us. In the link below you can see a video file of his work. He is a musician and composer, but he has some extreme powerful leads that humanity can use in the constructive purpose if one understands and utilizes the true meaning between sacred geometry (the correct location on the planetary grid) and the sacred sound.

In Part 1 if interested you can see his presentation:

http://maya12-21-2012.com/2012forum/...\_next=next#new

I also have a friend in Canada who is an audio engineer and who is building something remarkable on the same geomusic formula principles as respected James Paul Furia.

His work also included using high-tech to induce controlled ESP and out of body experience. Astral excursion that can be used to bring important input from the higher planes of existence. And to be functional every time when this technology is used.

Tri-Sensory Model

- ▶ With this model, correlations between tactile, auditory, and visual geometries and harmonics would be maximized to ensure maximum entrainment to specific octaves
- ▶ Harmonically, visual stimuli associated with beta->gamma activity would stimulate the 40Hz resonant point, auditory stimuli the 10Hz point, tactile stimuli the 4-5Hz point.

But this is just a small range of his ideas.

He is targeting something on a planetary scale, something that has to do with the correct planetary locations found by Carl Munck in his work known as The Code. So we have a few top audio engineers, who understand the purpose and can create the necessary audio frequency which is needed.

Let's go on...

Using the best of what the pineal gland can provide, a single group will have to convert this energy into a clean Light. A strong beam of blue-white light, filled with creative emotions of love and harmony and directed as protection of GAIA, will have to penetrate the earth's surface and reach the highest point in the earth's atmosphere. Remember the research of Japanese scientist Dr. Masaru Emoto who discovered that crystals formed in frozen water revealed changes when specific thoughts were directed towards it.

We carry extreme natural mental strength, but we are just programmed from the social system not to use it.

People just have to break the old belief systems to pieces, remove all chess figures and start from the empty board.

To start from the beginning.

Unfortunately it has come to that. But we can still do it.

Much pain, but still time...

Let's proceed ...

This energy is similar to one that you experience on major concerts when thousands people are singing as one.

You can feel the power that is generating in the surrounding space. In places that are part of the planetary grid, where there will be no people who are introduced to those arts, it will be enough that they all sing the same song loudly and as one.

The song has to be emotional and noble and to generate the most divine emotions of the person. The only difference from the previously mentioned concert experience is that you are not singing for fun, but for the survival of earth and the protection of the all life that exist here. Anyway, the Nexus is coming for sure, but we have lot of work to do before it arrives. And no one else can do it for us.

It just doesn't work that way. Therefore, to achieve this, I believe we have to do this: This beam of light, visible in the consciousness of the few thousands human beings who are meditating in the same place, will have to connect to all the other locations on the planet where other groups of human beings will be in deep meditation. If done properly, every group will feel an emotional and telepathic connection with every other group, and in the end, all groups will tune into one giant rhythm of conscious energy.

As previously explained, this has to be preformed at the exact same time no matter the time zone you are in. First as described before, the audio engineers have to play the music sound according to the latitude and longitude of the exact geographical location. Then after an hour or so, they all have to tune to Schuman resonance and to start influencing the reality of the four elements. Please remember we can use technology to generate sound or light but it is the most divine inside our beings that will save us and our planet.

Many of you are still asleep, and you are of the opinion that we don't have to do anything... that everything will work out by default... but that's wrong. There is much that we have to do and in such a small period of time.

The awakening is quickening, and the Dark Side is aware that very soon the critical mass of people will start to see through the clouds of their deception. That is why they are in hurry to break the economy around spring 2009, to cause problems on a global scale, and normally send the military to solve the problems they caused themselves, and that's how it will started with the primary goal – “NWO” one world ruling government which will wipe out 5/6 of the current population, small group on the top, and all the rest as slaves and turning this planet to a really dark place.

That is why we have to start preparing and grouping now. Tomorrow will be too late. Today is tomorrow. If we do not act today, tomorrow is difficult to be seen. But the Divine Intelligences are watching us, waiting for us to grow, to remember, to understand and to solve our puzzle.

So, there is hope...

We have to step forward, not with guns, not with their ways, but with higher consciousness, with transcendence of the Law of Attraction, with visualizing that we no longer want any evil in any form or shape to be part of our reality. If two argue and fight, and one realizes that the fighting is useless, no matter what the opponent is saying, the words do not reach him/her because he stepped out of it and has erased this person from his/her life permanently. It's a plastic example, but that's how simple is if we awake and do this.

The higher Divine does not expect from us to get guns, that leads to the Dark Side; it expects from us that we awake, that we remember, understand, transcend and evolve and stop the Dark Side.

Make no mistake; the Dark Side is aware of what is coming, so if we DO NOT DO THIS, it will probably be over for most of us and our planet before the Nexus arrives. That is why they are trying showing us the way through the crop messages.

I hope you people will have wisdom and clear sight to see what I'm seeing.

I believe that, this is what we, as humans, have to do, with all my heart and all my soul.

Once more,

– Once the beginning time is set according to all time zones, the planetary group meditation can begin. It can not be done at first. People have to practice this many times before reaching a satisfactory level. We have to ask the audio engineers to construct the sounds for every place so that we all can tune into the higher harmonics of Gaia. So we have to do this now. Before the audio files are ready, it can be practiced with one melody that has pure emotions but it has to be played the same in all the world and at the same exact time, no matter if it is the day or night in the time zone you are in.

– Then the people have to visualize the blue-white beam materializing above them towards the highest point of the earth's atmosphere and penetrating down through the surface to the inner sun that is in the center of Shamballa.

– The meditation has to proceed with connections to all other groups around the world. That is why most of the people have to know all the spots where energy will be coming and connecting. So we will build a wave of thought-sound-light energy filled with positive emotions that will also penetrate into the space attracting similar vibrations.

– Once one rhythm of consciousness is established, people have to visualize earth flowing in this energy, and all the evil fading away from here. To just visualize everything that you believe is causing harm in every form and shape, to use mental effort to make it transparent, and slowly fading to total disappearance and the planet is left into Light.

– The GAIA is alive and if we do this, it will respond back. Also the crop circle makers and others will respond to the signal. We have to understand the importance of this, people.

I believe that we can stop the Evil that is upon our planet with the power of our feelings, and that is the ultimate message that Nature and our higher brothers and sisters are trying to tell us. I believe that only then we will be truly ready for the evolution as a race that awaits us at the end of Dec 2012.

We have to stop seeing blackness everywhere we look, and we have to start seeing our selves as living fire of Love, Intelligence and Light.

In a Hologram, the whole pattern is whole and complete in itself. If you take any little portion of this whole out, and examine it closely, you will see entire pattern repeating itself again and again to infinity.

Anywhere in this pattern, if we change one little aspect of the Hologram, that change will be reflected throughout the entire system.

The only question is – how can we do that?

Global Meditation.

Fusing our consciousness into oneness and changing the fundamental fractal structure of the planetary matrix.

All the physical matter, everything we have around us, is the result of a frequency...

If we gather together all around the world and at the same time, if we tune into one stream of consciousness, we can manage to amplify this frequency and change the structure of the matter.

In other words we can change this reality...

We have to provide some more time for the planet and the life that lives here. They are crushing the economy already, which means its already starting.

I believe it's our responsibility to step forward, to unite and to act now. Not with guns or violence but with Higher Consciousness.

The pictograms have shown us the way.

Dear friends, I believe that this is the ultimate message that we have to understand and to learn how to apply it!

To date, more then 20,000 genuine crop circles have been delivered in sites across the world. Some of the crafts were taken down by Star Wars Laser weapons. Someone is risking much to get this information to us. They wouldn't bother to risk coming to our plane of existence just to draw beautiful pictures in crops if everything were to solve by default. That is why I believe that it's essential that we start performing planetary meditations.

This is the “Checkmate Move” ETs are referring to. I hope we will be able to put down our belief systems and understand this before it’s too late. We have to rediscover our hidden potentials and to understand the connection between our thoughts and the structure of the matter!

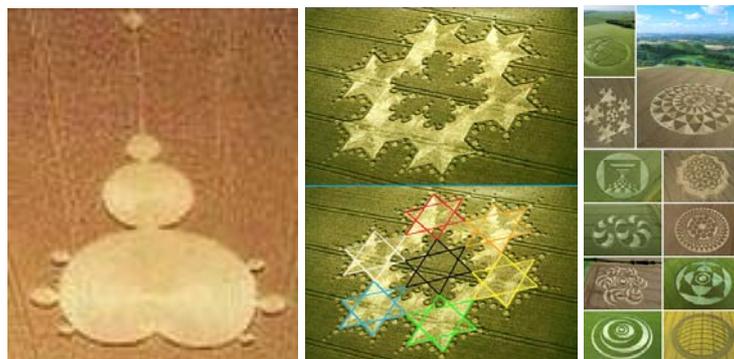

They are showing the fractals, the geometry, the STRUCTURE OF THE UNIVERSE!

AND MOST IMPORTANT – HOW WE CAN CHANGE IT!

And if done as it should be - IT WILL WORK!

I’m aware that this is a process that it will take time. But I’m also aware that we do not have much of it.

"They" insist that we pay attention to fractal geometry. From my point of view this download is solid. The data is real, and it is alarming of possible 2012-2013 catastrophes if we do not do something about it!

From the bottom of my heart, I believe that planetary meditation is just a start.

It will start as test or experiment, but it will soon transform into something surprisingly powerful.

It will change the reality of this world, our planet will start to vibrate with light, and even the people who will walk on the street will feel the difference.

In any case, I have achieved what I came here to achieve. I have delivered the message.

I hope we will have strength to resolve our differences, to unite as ONE and to show our true DIVINE NATURE that is hidden deep inside every one of us.

It is time that we make the final turn...

Are you with us?

We are all ONE. There is no race, no competition, no leaders, and no hierarchy. We are all equal and we are all part of the same consciousness. We are all connected and we can change this reality if we start tuning into Oneness.

So please, join us, let's start with synchronized planetary meditations, and let's transform this planet into a place of Light!

We are all Light and Fire of the Divine Creation.

That is what I feel deep inside my heart and what I know for sure...

Peace, Light, Love, Unity and Harmony.

Namaste,

Astralwalker
